Customer Reviews

The graphics in this book are not particularly exciting, but the sentiment is. I bought this as a baby gift for a bilingual couple. Mom speaks English and Spanish and Dad speaks German, English, and Spanish. They were both delighted because they want their child to learn all three languages

I am excited to find this series because my grandson has an American Papa and a German Mama, so this book is perfect for them to read to him. He is 16 months old, but understand everything in both languages.

Gifted this for a 2 year old German American boy. The child's German mother told me that she planned on teaching her son both languages so I figured this would be a great book to have for their family. She was very happy to get it

While I appreciate the idea, the book looks cheaply made. The story is not very thoughtful and the pictures look generic. The only good thing is that it is bilingual. The rest looks like someone threw it together in 10 minutes

A wonderful way for my German-British granddaughter, who lives in Austin, TX, to learn her mother's native language.
