New French With Ease Mp3 Pack (Assimil With Ease)

Synopsis

Europe's premiere language learning method. If you want to easily learn contemporary, useful and effective English, the Assimil method is the one for you! What is the Assimil method? The Assimil method applies an exclusive, very simple but very effective principle: intuitive assimilation. This principle uses and adapts the natural process of learning your native language to learning a different language. With the use of lively dialogues and easy-to-follow notes and exercises, Assimil leads you to a level of fluent conversation naturally and at a comfortable pace. In the first part of your studies, the passive phase, immerse yourself in the language by reading along with the audio and by repeating each lesson out loud. In the second part, you begin the active phase which will allow you to apply the structures and all that you have intuitively absorbed while continuing to progress in the language. In just a few months, you will speak naturally, with ease and without any hesitation. What will you find in this method? Lively, useful dialogues which guarantee a rapid mastery of the language. A variety of realistic and contemporary situations. Grammatical development carefully designed for intuitive learning. Systematic review sections to incorporate all you have learned. Engaging cultural comments. A unique, humorous style to make learning enjoyable. The MP3 CD provides: The choice between listening to the lessons continuously or phrase by phrase. 1,955 recordings in MP3 STUDIO quality. Simultaneous display of more than one text (subject to the settings of your player).

Assimil is one of the better examples of how much the student's results depend on how well the teaching method is suited to them. These courses require you to do a lot of work on your own to benefit. The instructions, which are not laid out clearly in the French edition, are pasted below (I got this from the Dutch version). Basically there is a "Passive wave" where you (actively!) listen to the dialogues up to about lesson 70 or so, and then you start doing two lessons per day, moving forward from the halfway point in a passive wave way, and starting back at the beginning in an active wave way. (see below for clarification). This requires a lot of work and motivation on the part of the student, and if you are someone who needs more motivation or structure, you're better off with the FSI courses. Bonne chance!

Passive Wave

1. Listen to the text with the book closed.
2. Listen to the recording while looking at the English translation.
3. Read the Target Language (TL) text aloud. Be sure you understand the meaning of each sentence.
4. Now read the TL text without looking at the translation.
5. Listen to the recording twice, once while looking at the English translation, and once while looking at the TL text.
6. Listen to the recording with the book closed. At this point you should understand what is being said.
7. Listen to the recording once more. Stop the machine after each sentence, and try to repeat it aloud.
8. Carefully read the comments several times. Examine the English sentences being explained.
9. Read the exercises. Repeat each sentence several times.
10. Examine the examples of sentence structure.

Active Wave

1. Read the lesson, then listen to the recordings.
