Customer Reviews

A best buy, for sure. Variety of situations, no two storylines alike. Some are five star worthy alone, all are four star worthy. Very few mistakes; typos, wrong word used, etc. Excellent opportunity to read authors familiar and new to you.

This was an interesting set of books. I had read stuff by two of the authors before. Each one dealt with either a younger person or an older one. They all ended how they should have ended. The last one in the series didn't seem to fit in with the age group of the other ones in the series. It was more slated toward teenage reading then for an adult. I think I liked some of them more than I did the other ones. They all had a different way in their writing to keep you in the story they were telling. Hope to see more from these authors. If you like romance you will enjoy these.

Warning! There is swearing and ugly language in the story by C.Bustamante. Since the description calls this a Christian novel, I was deeply disappointed and stopped reading the entire collection. What a disappointment!

I enjoyed some of the books in this set but some were too slow. I believe there was some reading for everyone.

I would give most of these stories 5 stars and maybe 4 on some. I did enjoy them all.

Super collection. I liked all of them.

Failed to see how this passed as "christian". Some stories extremely slow moving. Very hard to get through. Glad I only paid $.99 cents as I skipped half the book.

These ten short stories are well written by their authors. I've enjoyed reading everyone of them. I believe others will too. Going to forget me not romances #3.
