Customer Reviews

These inspirational romances by Leah Atwood are awesome reads of faith, forgiveness, and second chances. Each book is unique in itself and although a part of the series, can be read as a stand alone. I highly recommend these books and its author.

Absolutely loved these beautiful stories of healing and forgiveness. The author does a great job of helping the reader understand that often forgiving ourselves is the hardest task we face. Although many of the characters are superstars they are just down to earth people who face personal and spiritual trials that many of us face. This is a great series from start to finish.

I enjoyed this series. The behind-the-scenes look at what the life of a music celebrity might be was interesting and believable. I appreciate the lack of sex and profanity and found the stories to be light and fun to read.

This is such a great series! I truly loved every story! I didn't want to put my kindle down... always looked forward to continuing the stories...I love how you gave updates on all of the characters in each new book. The characters were written with such depth that you could feel what they were feeling. These were a great picture of faith and forgiveness. The emotions and characteristics of everyone were down-to-earth and easy to relate to... I wish you could keep going with this series! It's a blessing to find good books like these. I have enjoyed every book Leah Atwood has written!

Must admit I am now addicted to this writer's storytelling! I read this collection one book after the other. The characters came alive....their interactions with one another rang real & true. Loved how they accepted Christ & how they were so willing to share their faith. I was sorry when the last book ended. I highly recommend this author & this collection!

This collection consists of three novels and a novella. I really enjoyed reading about Bryce and his bandmates. I thought the stories were very well written. I was trying to decide which one I liked the best but was unable to come up with one. I loved all of them. I would definitely recommend this collection.I received a digital copy of this collection from the author in exchange for my honest opinion.

A delightful series of romances showing faith helping four young women deal with challenges in their lives and the young men who help them trust in God through it all. Leah Atwood always provides a good read and you won't go wrong investing in these warm, romantic novels + one novella. The characters repeat a bit in these stories, but each also stands well alone. You can never go wrong with Leah Atwood.

A wonderful collection of love stories. The first 3 involve members in a band, each story about a different band member. Each story involves unresolved issues, growth and change. I loved how the author wove God into each story and how important He is to all of our stories. Highly recommend this collection. I received a free copy in exchange for an honest review.
