OLIVER TWIST (Spanish Edition)

Synopsis

London's underworld Dickens was a master of narrative and, among his books, Oliver Twist is one of the best. It is a novel of adventures with a social background that tells the story of a boy whose life has fated him to be of a criminal but is saved by his personality. The author, besides showing that the life of a bandit does not have the romanticism in which other authors of the epoch drew, creates a series of right psychological outlines. The characters go from the most wicked and perverted up to the tenderness that ends up saving the main character. The book, which was published by sections in the first half of the 19th century, is considered to be one of Dickens's deepest creations. This edition, read by the celebrated actor Fabio Camero, offers the public a fascinating story.
