Customer Reviews

I am very surprised that there are not more reviews for this recording. I thought that people who enjoyed the movie, 'The Secret', would've flocked to this classic recording, but I guess I was mistaken. This recording's message is basically, what you think about, is what you will receive. I'm sorry to dissappoint the people who are looking for something "new"...something "magical"...something that will "blow their mind"...because this recording offers more of the same thing that countless others have offered over the years. But what is the same? I have recordings from Ernest Holmes, Joseph Murphy, Wayne Dyer, Deepak Chopra, Eric Butterworth from Unity and they all talk about how our thoughts create our reality. To me, just the fact that they are talking about this, is a mind blower. Now it may not be for you, because you've heard this before...but think about it...I mean, really, really think about it...isn't it kind of amazing that we live in a universe that is so willing to respond to our thoughts about it? I mean, yeah, sure, you've heard about these concepts as have I, but the vast majority of people have not. The vast majority of people still feel like they are at the mercy of the world, they have no idea how a simple shift in their thinking can change their entire life. This recording, although dated, hits home with me every time. It makes me think about how I got involved in all this "mind-stuff" in the first place. I had just had what doctors call an emotional

"breakdown" but what I call, a "breakthrough". The world that I had lived in had shattered in a million pieces, but you see, this is the only way that I would've come to see the Light. Before my breakthrough, the world was solid, heavy, and dark.
